This Week...

Panto

Once again, we have had a fantastic performance from 'Purple Dreams Productions' in school this week.

This year's pantomime was Alice in Wonderland . The children and staff thoroughly enjoyed the entertainment with plenty of loud audience participation in the true tradition of panto!

Beaupre Election Results

We are pleased to announce the winner of Beaupre's general election: Global Gold are the party that are going to govern the country.

A huge well done to all Year 5 and 6 children who thoroughly embraced our election-based learning experience and, not only enhanced their understanding of politics, but were able to practise presenting, debating and questioning skills – which they did maturely and with sensible consideration.

Yellow Class's 1920's Party

Over the course of the half-term, Yellow Class has been learning about music during WW1 and that its purpose was to boost morale. The children were able to explore lyrics and tempo of music of this time and use this to create their own uplifting war songs. This led on to the children exploring post-WW1 music - that of the 1920's and the children thought about how they would move to this type of music before exploring dances of the time, like the Charleston.

To end this music unit, on Monday 16th December, Yellow Class held a 1920's party, where they came to school in traditional 1920's costumes and danced to music of the time.

Yellow Class News

Yellow Class are very pleased to announce that they have had a new class member join them – one of the furry variety.

Dottie, the hamster, was delivered to Yellow Class – by Father Christmas – and the children discovered their present on their return from Tuesday's school pantomime.

The children were all very surprised but excited by this new addition and we are pleased to inform that Dottie is settling in well.

School Uniform

We have noticed lots of trainers being worn, particularly a variety of coloured trainers, some with logos and coloured soles. Can you please ensure that on our return to school in January, your child is wearing correct school uniform including correct footwear and no jewellery.

ParentPay

A reminder that all ParentPay accounts should be brought up-to-date today so that any debt is not carried forward to next term.

Many thanks.

100% Attendance

Well done to all of the children who received their 100% attendance certificates in assembly this morning.
