Week 10

I can definitely say it has been a very busy week this week!

This week started with Mrs Summers delivering an assembly on Anti-Bullying for Anti-Bullying week, wearing her odd socks to show individuality! Class teachers have reinforced the definition of Bullying and the schools RID. Please see further in the newsletter for more information and examples of what the children have been doing to

You will be aware that we had our OFSTED visit on Tuesday and Wednesday and I would like to thank you for your support and kind words. Your children proved to be a credit to you and the school with their politeness, hard work and behaviour. I would like to thank all the staff for their continual hard work and commitment to the school and your children. It has been a long couple of days and we await the outcome which I will share with you as soon as I can.

Parent evening consultations have also begun this week to share and celebrate your children and their successes and next steps.

I wish you all a relaxing weekend.

Headteacher

Parking on Church Drove

This week we have noticed some parking on the yellow zigzag lines and some parking and driving on the footpath outside the school gates.

For the safety of all we would like to remind you to drive carefully and be mindful and safe around the school gates at all times. Please not to park or stop on the yellow lines.

Anti Bullying Week

As it is anti-bullying week, this week, the children have been taking part in activities to enhance their understanding of what bullying is.

Across the school, careful thought has been given to what bullying is: causing hurt, harm or humiliation to someone else (either physically, mentally or both) but it needs to include all of the following 3 things:

Repeated and takes place over a period of time.

Imbalance of power (being carried out by more than one person, or one person who is bigger or older, for example).

Deliberate.

Mrs Summers delivered an assembly on Monday morning, to reinforce this message with the children, and through considering scenarios, the children were able to think about situations that involve bullying, and how to get 'RID' of bullying! Mrs Summers also discussed making the distinction between RID and unacceptable and unkind behaviour.

Throughout the week, classes participated in activities to enhance their understanding of anti-bullying. For example; exploring literature, creating anti-bullying posters, designing odd socks to celebrate difference and making friendship bracelets and paper chains.

A beautiful display of all the children's hard work will be created, as a reminder to the children of the importance of what they learnt this week.

Orange Class

It has been an incredibly exciting couple of weeks in Orange Class. As part of our History and Geography topic this term of the 'Vikings', we have been using authentic Viking cooking techniques to produce traditional cuisine. Mrs Halls kindly attended school to teach the children how to forage for suitable materials to feed a fire, how to make a fire pit from scratch and about the equipment required. I was able to lead the class in the teaching and learning of producing Viking bread, which consisted of apples, honey, salt, seeds, flour and water - from what I understand it is not the finest bread you will ever consume!

The children had a wonderful time and were all so engaged in their learning, desperate to get their hands dirty and dig in.

Thank you again to Mrs Halls for all your support in allowing this fantastic learning opportunity to go ahead and to the children of Orange Class, for their enthusiasm.

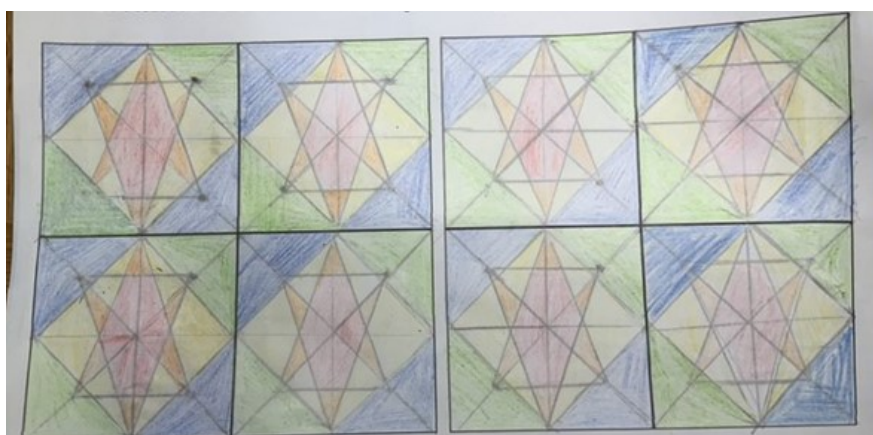

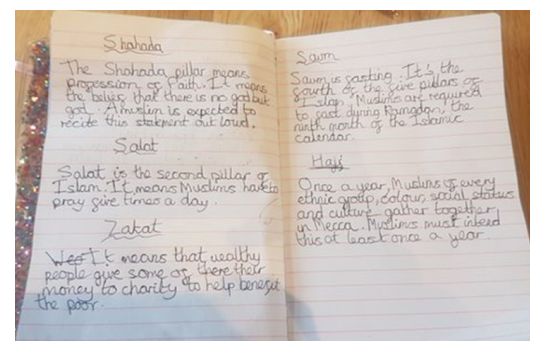

Mrs Riley

Yellow Class

During World Religion Day, Yellow Class were able to research and learn about different aspects of the Islam faith. They were able to produce some fantastic pieces of work, sharing the new knowledge they had acquired. Also the children were able to create something that answered the question who am I?

Here are only some pieces of the wonderful work that the children were able to create showing an example of an Islamic geometric repeating pattern, research on the 5 pillars of Islam and a piece of work answering the question 'Who am I?'

Yellow Class

Year 6 have been undertaking some wartime cookery which they took home to share with their families. Here is the recipe, should you wish to have a go at making it at home.

1916: What To Do With Cheese

Cheese And Lentil Savoury Recipe

Lentils are a highly nutritious as well as an economical food, and when treated as follows, they are also very delicious. Take eight ounces of cheese, five and a half ounces of lentils, three ounces of breadcrumbs, four ounces of onions, one and a half ounces of fat, parsley, salt and pepper.

Wash the lentils; peel and chop the onions and cook them in a little water with the lentils, stirring occasionally. Have the cheese grated; put it into a basin and when the lentils and onions have nearly finished cooking stir them to the cheese and add the breadcrumbs, a tablespoonful of chopped parsley and pepper and salt.

Handy hint: to convert ounces to grams: multiply by 28.35!
