Week 12

Welcome to this week's newsletter.

This week, our Yr 2, 3, 5 and 6 children had a presentation from the NSPCC around 'The 5 Forms of Hurt'. On Thursday, Maple Class wrapped up warm for their visit to West Stow, where they all had a wonderful day finding out about the Anglo Saxons. The remainder of the school had the annual Christingle service, where Lay Minister Raine Thorrold delivered an assembly on being charitable and helping others.

Next week, we look forward to the Infant Nativity as we begin the run up to Christmas.

Have a wonderful weekend with family and friends.

Mrs Munday (Headteacher)

CHRISTMAS GROTTTO

The festive season started off brilliantly last Friday, with Santa paying us a visit for the BFG annual Christmas Grotto. The children enjoyed tasty refreshments, played games and made some lovely Christmas Crafts, all topped off with a visit to Santa, who gave everyone an early Christmas gift!

Thank you to all who worked with Santa to make the BFG Christmas Grotto such a festive night of fun for everyone!

NSPCC Workshop

This week, we have been very fortunate to welcome some friends from the NSPCC. They delivered some exciting workshops about 'The 5 Forms of Hurt' and what to do if we are worried or unhappy about something.

The main message is to speak out to a trusted adult. All of the children learnt who a trusted adult could be and discovered a fun way to help them to memorise the Childline phone number. The session was finished off with completing 'The Buddy Kit'. This also contains some very important information which could help to keep our children safe.

We also found out there are some exciting games on the NSPCC website and a great app for you to explore, if you wish.

Is your child too ill for school?

It can be tricky deciding whether or not to keep your child off school, when they're unwell. There are government guidelines for schools about managing specific infectious disease. They say when children should be kept off school and when they shouldn't.

If you do keep your child at home, it's important to phone us on the first day and give us a reason for absence. Please see below the following advice from the NHS on other illnesses:

Coughs and colds

It's fine to send your child to school with minor coughs or common colds. But if they have a fever, keep them off school until the fever goes.

High temperature

If your child has a high temperature, keep them off school until it goes away.

Chickenpox

If your child has chickenpox, keep them off school until all the spots have crusted over. This is usually about 5 days after the spots first appeared.

Cold sores

There's no need to keep your child off school if they have a cold sore.

Conjunctivitis

You don't need to keep your child away from school if they have conjunctivitis. Do get advice from your pharmacist. Encourage your child not to rub their eyes and to wash their hands regularly.

Vomiting and diarrhoea

Children with diarrhoea or vomiting should stay away from school until they have not been sick or had diarrhoea for at least 2 days (48 hours).

Scarlet fever

If your child has scarlet fever, they'll need treatment with antibiotics from a GP. Your child can go back to school 24 hours after starting antibiotics.

Sore Throat

You can still send your child to school if they have a sore throat. But if they also have a high temperature, they should stay at home until it goes away. A sore throat and a high temperature can be symptoms of tonsillitis.

If you need any further advice on other common illnesses, please contact the school office.
