HOW BEING IN SCHOOL HELPS CHILDREN KEEP THEIR FRIENDSHIPS STRONG

Children build friendships through lots of small, everyday moments – chatting as they hang up their coat, joining in a game at playtime, working with a partner, or sharing a joke at lunchtime. When they're in school regularly, these moments stack up and help them feel part of things.

WHAT HAPPENS WHEN CHILDREN MISS DAYS

Missing school doesn't just mean missing lessons. It can mean:

- Not knowing the game everyone played yesterday.
- Feeling unsure about what friends talked about.
- Worrying that groups have moved on without them.
- Finding it harder to join in again the next day
- These feelings are completely normal for children, and they can make coming back feel a bit harder, especially if absences start to add up.

WHY THIS MATTERS FOR CONFIDENCE AND WELLBEING

- Friendships help children feel settled, safe, and ready to learn..
- They join in more confidently.
- They cope better with challenges.
- They feel happier coming into school each morning.
- Regular attendance gives children the steady rhythm they need to build and keep those friendships.

As always, thank you to our families for continuing to work with us to ensure that all children have the best possible attendance

Every day in school gives children a chance to play, laugh, learn and stay connected with their friends. Even a few days away can make them feel a little out of the loop.

If mornings are tricky or you're worried about your child's friendships, please get in touch, we're here to help. Together we can help your child feel confident, included and part of their friendship group.

SUPPORT FROM SCHOOL

Where possible school will offer support to you and your child around attendance difficulties.

PHONE CALLS FROM SCHOOL

Mrs Munday our Headteacher and Mrs Brooker our Attendance Officer will request a meeting with you to talk about your child's attendance and any difficulties you or your child may be facing.

These are supportive and we encourage our families to engage with us in this way so that your child can have the best possible attendance.

Feel free to contact school at any time to discuss any concerns you may have.
